What's New In Daily SweetIM?

Description: Wink Flash Cards is a game for all ages that you can play and learn one of the most powerful communication tools called "Wink". It's a new way to communicate using the smileys to make conversations more fun and natural. The smileys are made of cards that you will discover and use them to communicate with friends. Wink Flash Cards is available in two versions, a free version and a more advanced and interactive paid version, but you can use both in your e-mails. You can choose if you want to use or not the free version. You can also remove the Ads from the application. Wink Flash Cards has different collections and new ones are being added weekly. You can play in three languages, English, French and Spanish. You can add/subtract cards from your collection in each language. You can also buy premium cards that are not available in the free version. You can also share your cards with friends in your Collection. The cards are made in two sizes, JPG and PNG. You can also set an image with the cards, if you are using a smartphone. The application is made in HTML5 with Google Web Fonts and latest jQuery plugins. It's fully responsive, we've made sure that you can use the app on all devices. We've improved a lot the performance, it's fast and fluid. Version 1.0.3.2 fix a bug where the emoticons were duplicated. It's recommended to update your app to the new version. A list of all new emoticons: - Sparkles - small amount of glitter - Glasses - make the other person see you with glasses - Cup - Make the other person feel your hand caressing their head - Watch - Let the other person hear the sounds of a watch - Mask - wear a mask to block the other person's view of you - Puppy - playing with a puppy - Dog - playing with a puppy - Potato - playing with a potato - Cake - playing with a cake - Frisbee - playing with a frisbee - Pipe - playing with a pipe - Smoke - playing with a cigarette - Cowboy hat - playing with a cowboy hat - Feed - playing
